CORAM : R.S. MOHITE, J.
DATED : 10/3/2006.

P.C.

1. This is an application for grant of bail. The conviction is under Section 498A and 306 of the I.P.C. and the maximum sentence imposed is of five years. The applicant is on bail in the trial court. There is no allegation of abuse of bail. I have perused the record and proceeding. The prosecution case was that the present applicant had harassed his wife by going to the examination centre where she was giving examination and this was the immediate cause to commit suicide. This fact was informed on mobile by the deceased to her brother. There is also reference of this fact in the conversation between the deceased and her brother when her brother called her back. During this conversation she was sitting in the jeep. Her brother is said to have informed the jeep driver to bring her home without allowing her to disembark on the way. This aspect of the matter is shown to be an improvement in the evidence. In the circumstances, I am inclined to grant bail to the applicant. Pending hearing and final disposal of the appeal the applicant may be released on bail as in the trial court subject to his furnishing fresh bail bonds.
